MAKING CAKES WITHOUT EGGS

BY CAROLINE COE.

Dried Apple Cake.
Soak two cups of dried apples over night; in the morning boil them one hour (or till soft) in one cup of sugar and one cup of molasses. Allow to cool.

To three cups of flour add one cup of soft butter, one cup of sweet milk, one teaspoon of soda, nutmeg, cinnamon and a little cloves. Beat this until perfectly smooth; add to the apples and sugar. Beat hard for five minutes and bake in slow oven over 40 minutes. Will keep moist a long time.

Bread Cake.
When baking bread weigh out two pounds of the bread dough; add one-half cup of butter, two cups of sugar, one box of seeded raisins, one-half small nutmeg (grated), one even teaspoon of soda. Mix all this together in cake bowl. Put into well-greased bread pans; allow to rise double in size; bake 45 minutes in moderate oven.

Fruit Cake.
One cup of brown sugar, one cup of water, two cups of raisins, one-third cup of lard, little nutmeg, one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one-half teaspoon of salt—boil all of this three minutes. Allow to cool; add one level teaspoon of soda dissolved in one teaspoon of water, two cups of flour, in which sift one-half teaspoon of baking powder. Just when you add the flour put in one cup of any kind of nut meats. Mix altogether thoroughly; bake in pan with tube in center.

Bread Griddle Cakes.
At night put two cups of bread crumbs in bowl, add three cups of milk, a teaspoon of sugar; beat altogether. In the morning add one cup of milk and flour enough to make a thin batter. Beat all with dove eggs, beater five minutes. Just before frying add one teaspoon of baking powder.

Layer Cake.
Cream one-fourth cup of butter with one cup of sugar. Put one tablespoon of cornstarch into one cup of sweet milk; add to the butter and sugar; sift two cups of flour with two teaspoons of baking powder; add to milk and sugar mixture. Flavor to taste. A little grated orange peel is most delicious. Bake in thin sheets and spread jelly or jam on each layer.

NEWEST FEATURE OF HOTEL LIFE IS HOSTESS

The newest feature on the conduct of modern hotels is the hostess, who usually is chosen because of her extensive acquaintance. Following the custom of many of the large eastern hotels the Severin at Indianapolis last week installed a hostess.

The interesting young woman is Miss Laura Talbot, a well known society girl of the capital city who spent two years in New York getting acquainted with this feature of hotel work.

Miss Talbot has apartments on the fourth floor of the Severin, where all of the women guests are roomed. She has a cozy reception room, a library, and being a young woman of extraordinary diplomacy and with a wealth of human sympathy she is always ready to lend an interested ear to the feminine guest who is lonesome or who wants to know about the theater or the department stores or which car to take.

Miss Talbot, so it is said, is able to discuss politics, suffrage, tariff revision or fashions or most any other topic that the feminine mind chances to think of. Part of the duties of the hostess is to chaperon young women when desired by parents who send their daughters to the hotel to remain over night.

RUSH SEASON IS IN FULL SWING

Holiday shopping was started in real earnest in South Bend Monday night when a number of the large department and other stores were open to thousands of buyers who are doing Christmas shopping early.

The stores in which girls under 16 years of age are employed, have arranged a schedule of working hours, for that portion of their forces, by which the girls who work nights report for work late every other morning or by shifts. Thus the child labor law is complied with.

Among the stores which kept their doors open Monday night until 9 or 9:30 o'clock were: Robertson's, Brandon & Durrell, Woolworth's Five and Ten Cent store.

Many of the large clothing stores were also kept open Monday night and the streets were well filled with Christmas shoppers.

ELLSWORTH'S CHRISTMAS SHOPPING CALENDAR.

This store will close at six o'clock Christmas Eve. This is new to South Bend but it enables clerks to observe Christmas Eve.

This Store will be open Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, Dec. 18, 19 and 20. Also Monday and Tuesday nights, Dec. 22 and 23.
